These two boys met in New York three years ago in a ten round contest as weiterweights, and at that time Clabby was credited with a victory. Since then both have developed into real middleweights and now Smith has turned the tables on the clever Clabby. Before leaving for Australia Clabby fought To rounds with Billy Morray in San Francisco, the decision being a draw although it was claimed by all the papers that Clabby easily outpointed the California bay. Murray, since that time has been making good in the east and the chances are that he will go to Australia for a series of matches under the direction of Snewy Eaker, if plans which are now being negotiated materialize.
